

TEXAS A&M
UNIVERSITY®

Texas A&M University is one of a select few academic institutions in the nation to hold triple federal designations as a land-grant, sea-grant, and space-grant university. Texas A&M holds membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities – one of only 62 institutions with this distinction. We also operate health-related programs of the Health Science Center at sites across Texas; two special purpose branch campuses in Galveston, Texas, and Doha, Qatar – fully funded by Qatar Foundation; and global partnership resources in Costa Rica, Italy, and Mexico.

ACADEMIC COLLEGES

With 16 colleges and schools, including the Texas A&M Health Science Center and the Texas A&M School of Law located in Ft. Worth, the university is one of the most diversified and comprehensive in the nation.

RESEARCH

Research conducted at Texas A&M represents annual expenditures of almost $866 million, ranking Texas A&M in the top twenty in higher education research and development expenditures (NSF Survey, 2015). That research creates new knowledge that provides basic, fundamental and applied contributions resulting in many cases in economic benefits to the state, nation and world.

FACULTY

Close to 85% of Texas A&M’s more than 3,533 faculty members hold doctoral degrees; close to 425 hold endowed chairs or professorships. Includes 3 Nobel Prize recipients, 19 members of the National Academy of Engineering, 11 members of the National Academy of Sciences, and 2 members of the National Academy of Medicine, 7 members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, 9 members of the American Law Institute, and 4 members of the American Academy of Nursing.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

Texas A&M University and other members of The Texas A&M University System in the Bryan/College Station area had a positive impact locally of more than $4.4 billion during 2015—based on the use of a standard 2.5 multiplier effect representing the number of times that such generated dollars are typically spent and re-spent in the local economy.

RANKS & RECOGNITION

The Wall Street Journal named Texas A&M University 2nd among all universities in the nation in a survey of the top U.S. corporations, nonprofits, and government agencies, based on graduates recruiters prefer to hire.

Ranks 5th in the nation among public universities in the “best value schools” category—and 25th overall among publics by 2015 U.S. News & World Report

Ranks 8th among U.S. public universities—and 1st in Texas—in a New York Times survey of business leaders worldwide based on the top institutions from which they recruit.

Ranks 4th nationally among public and private universities in 2014 Washington Monthly based on research, service, social mobility, and contributions to society.

Ranks 4th in the nation in 2014 for most affordable comprehensive public universities with highest return on investment—what its graduates earn during the first 20 years of career—Payscale

Ranks 6th among U.S. institutions for doctorates awarded to Hispanics, and 8th among U.S. institutions for doctorates to African Americans—Chronicle of Higher Education

Texas A&M University is home to the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum.

STUDENT BODY

25% of the freshman class are the first in their family to attend college.

The average SAT score for freshman is well above the national average.

There are more than 1,000 student-led organizations in which Texas A&M's students can participate to apply learning in real-world settings and sharpen leadership skills.

Approximately 14,000 enrolled students work part-time on campus, often in service-related jobs, and share in approximately $110 million in earnings that helps them—and their parents—defray college expenses.

Approximately 72% of the student body receives some form of financial aid, sharing in more than $736 million annually.

Ranks 131st in the nation in attracting international students, with 5,906 from 123 countries enrolled, most of whom are involved in graduate studies and research.

Texas A&M is the top-ranked university for the number of students earning credit while studying aboard with more than 5,330 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 100 countries annually.

CORPS OF CADETS

The Corps of Cadets is among the nation's largest uniformed student bodies and commissions more officers than any other institution except for the nation's service academies; more than 2,400 men and women participate on a voluntary basis.

ATHLETICS

Texas A&M athletics is committed to academic achievement, athletic excellence, and national recognition of student-athletes, teams, and programs; almost 650 student-athletes compete in the SEC at the NCAA Division 1-A level in 20 varsity sports.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Opened: 1876

Colors: Maroon & White

Nickname: Aggies

Total Enrollment: 66,426

College Station Campus: 60,979 Includes Law

Undergraduates: 50,879

Graduate and Professional: 14,800

Purpose: to develop leaders of character dedicated to serving the greater good

Core Values: Integrity, Loyalty, Respect, Excellence, Leadership, Selfless Service

TRADITIONS

12TH MAN

In the spirit of E. King Gill, who was called to suit up during the 1922 Dixie Classic in case his team needed him, students stand during football games to support their team.

YELL PRACTICE

Aggies don't cheer; they yell! Before each home football game, students gather at midnight to pump up the 12th man, led by five select Aggies elected as Yell Leaders.

SILVER TAPS

An honored Aggie tradition, the final tribute—with buglers playing Silver Taps—is held the first Tuesday of the month when a student has passed away the previous month.

MUSTER

Every April 21, Muster brings Aggies together worldwide. The stirring remembrance ceremony is dedicated to Aggies who have gone before us but are forever united in spirit.

AGGIE RING

One of the greatest moments in the life of Aggies is the day they receive their Aggie Rings, the most recognizable symbol of their link to the Aggie Family and a significant milestone in their academic progress towards a degree.

50 - 06/2017

Aggies Commit
to learning for a lifetime

At Texas A&M, we provide students with a holistic educational experience that prepares them to learn for a lifetime. In turn, we ask our students to pursue their education seriously and intentionally.

Aggies commit to learning for a lifetime through engaging in experiences like internships or service learning; research or learning communities; enhanced communication or study abroad.

By integrating the knowledge cultivated in these and other high-impact practices, our students are developed into educated leaders of character committed to learning for a lifetime and prepared to serve the greater good.